

UNITED STATES ACADEMIC DECATHLON

National Competition - 2010

The United States Academic Decathlon National Finals is held under the auspices of the USAD Board of Directors. All testing, judging, scoring, and any other function of the competition per se are managed by USAD. This year's event is being hosted by the United States Academic Decathlon in conjunction with a host of volunteers from the State of Tennessee.

General Rules

Identification

All participants must display their USAD photo IDs at their workstations during each test and at each competition event. ID badges must be worn to all competitive events and must be plainly visible to the proctors and judges to verify each participant's identity. All pertinent test materials, including Scantrons, pertaining to an individual participant will be pre-coded. Prior to each test session, participants must complete the cover sheet of each test, which includes his/her name, competition ID number, signature, and date, in order for the test to be acceptable for scoring.

Testing Arena

Cell phones or any electronic devices are not permitted in the testing arena. Contestants will NOT be excused from the testing room (including Super Quiz) for any reason before the scheduled break. If a student leaves a testing room or event, he/she will NOT be permitted to return until the next scheduled break at the conclusion of the subject area tests. Any participant who has a medical condition which requires special provisions of any kind must provide USAD with written documentation from a physician in advance of the competition. The decision to allow a medical exception is at the discretion of USAD and is final.

Super Quiz

This event is held before a large audience; therefore, spectators are asked to be as quiet as possible while the questions are being read in order to give each contestant an equal opportunity for hearing and responding. Teams with fewer than nine participants must fill at least the first and second positions within each category (honor, scholastic, and varsity). Participants are NOT permitted to bring books, notes, purses, backpacks, coats, hats, electronic devices, or any other items to the team seating area or to the competition floor. Any such items will be confiscated by proctors. Mascots must remain in the team seating area and are NOT allowed on stage. Coaches and State Directors are NOT allowed to sit with or communicate with their team members during the Super Quiz. Coaches will be seated in a designated area. Any team that does not adhere to the Super Quiz rules may be disqualified from the event. Cell phones or any electronic devices are not permitted in the Super Quiz competition area.

Tardiness

Participants are responsible for being in the proper test location at the time each test begins. If a participant is tardy, he/she will NOT be allowed to enter the testing room or the speech and interview events. Contestants will NOT be allowed to enter the Super Quiz Relay venue once the competition commences.

Test Materials

The proctor will supply all printed materials and writing utensils necessary for the written tests. Participants are NOT permitted to bring books, notes, purses, backpacks, coats, hats, mascots, electronic devices, cell phones, or any other items, except for approved calculators, into the testing room. Any such items will be confiscated by the proctor.

Starting/Stopping

If a proctor determines that a student has failed to stop when instructed to do so or has started before being instructed to do so, the student will receive a score of zero for that particular test.

Cheating

If a proctor or competition official finds a contestant involved in using or possessing a cell phone in any competition area, using any unauthorized means of communication, using any type of crib, sharing, storing, or transporting test information (including inappropriate use of a calculator), the proctor must report the incident to the USAD Testing Director. If a participant is proven to have cheated, he/she will be disqualified from the event; however, depending on the severity of the infraction, the participant may be disqualified from the entire competition. Participants removed because of cheating or misconduct will NOT be eligible for any awards. Any person receiving or passing along any current year's tests or test items, except for USAD published practice tests, will disqualify him/herself and his/her team from Decathlon participation. The decision of USAD will be final and irrevocable.

Withdrawal

In the case of an emergency or illness, a participant must formally withdraw in order to be eligible for any awards. To formally withdraw, a participant must give a written explanation of his/her withdrawal to a proctor or Decathlon official. An alternate student CANNOT be added to a team in the case of a withdrawal.

Test Scores

Any scores announced during the competition are unofficial. Test scores will NOT be posted at any time during the competition, except for those from the Super Quiz Oral Relay event. The scoring center is off-limits to everyone except designated officials.

Team Selection

The nine team members who attend the National Finals must be the same nine students who participated in and won the state competition. No substitutions are permitted. In case of an "extreme medical emergency" occurring after the state competition, USAD and the State Director will determine if another student may replace the absent team member. Teams shall NOT consist of more than nine members. Teams may compete with fewer than nine members, but must have a minimum of six members—two in each grade point average category. To be eligible for competition, teams must file all required documents in accordance with the deadlines set by USAD.

School Divisions

There will be three divisions of schools—Division I, Division II, and Division III—at the USAD national competition. These divisions are determined by the enrollment for grades 9–12 of the schools attending Nationals. The Robert Peterson trophy will be awarded to the team with the highest overall score.

Essay and Mathematics

This year the essay and mathematics events will take place online prior to the competition in Omaha, Nebraska. The essay component will be held April 8, 2010, at 12:30 p.m. Central Daylight time with mathematics immediately following the essay. You will need to reserve a computer lab at your school, library or other venue. An administrator (not the team coach) will need to oversee the online competition. All students MUST participate on this day. It is necessary for your team to participate in a practice set-up on March 30, 2010, at 12:30 p.m., or March 31, 2010, at 12:30 p.m. Central Daylight time.

Each essay will be read by two judges. If the scores from the two judges differ by 200 points or more, the essay will then be read by a third reader. The divergent score will be tossed out and the two closest scores will be averaged to determine the essay score.

Calculators are allowed in the testing room ONLY during the testing session in which the math test is scheduled. Calculators may be used for the math test ONLY. Calculators must be stored beneath the student's chair and out of sight while other tests are being taken during the same testing session as that in which the math test is scheduled to be taken. Students may use any hand-held, battery-operated calculator that is considered a four-function or scientific calculator, or graphing calculator. Models with an alphabetic (QWERTY) keypad, such as the TI-92 or HP-95, and models with CAS (Computer Algebra Systems), such as the TI-89 are NOT allowed. Students may NOT exchange calculators. Students and coaches should refer to USAD's calculator policy for additional information regarding calculators.

Standards of Conduct

Decathletes and coaches are required to comply with the above competition rules and those stated in the USAD Code of Student Conduct. Failure to adhere to these rules may, at the discretion of USAD, result in the disqualification of the participant and/or his/her team. Decathletes will uphold the highest standards of honesty and integrity while participating in the Academic Decathlon. If necessary, a decathlete may be required to re-take an alternate test to validate his/her test results.
