ARTICLE VII
DIRECTORS

Section 7.1 Numbers. The Board shall consist of not less than seven (7) positions nor more than thirty (30) positions. The exact number of Directors is to be fixed, within the limits specified in Section 7.3 of this Article VII, by resolution of the Board.

Section 7.1.1 Categories of Directors. There shall be two categories of Directors—Individual Directors and Representative Directors. Individual Directors shall be elected pursuant to Section 3. The Board of Directors may specify one or more entities (including corporations or other forms of business or non-profit entities) as having the right to designate a Representative Director subject to the Corporation’s right of prior approval of the Representative Director. An entity’s right to designate a Representative Director may be terminated by the Corporation at any time, in which case the Representative Director shall immediately cease to act as a Director. The President of the United States Academic Decathlon State Directors shall serve as a Representative Director during his/her term of office. The board shall also appoint another State Director, Retired Coach and former Student Decathlete to serve as Representative Directors, each for a three year term.

Section 7.1.2 Qualification of Directors. Individual nominees to the Board of Directors will be expected to meet some combination of these criteria: high-level executive or professional experience; experience in education at the teaching and/or administrative level; service to and knowledge of the communities served by the Academic Decathlon; and philanthropic commitment and fundraising capability. It is the ultimate goal of the Corporation that the Board of Directors reflects a diversity of age, gender, culture, and ethnicity, and be geographically representative of the USAD constituency. Corporate sponsors exercising the right to designate a Representative Director to the Board will be expected to provide significant financial and/or in-kind support to the Corporation.

Section 7.2 Powers. Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the management of the activities of the Corporation to any person or persons, management company or committee however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the Corporation are managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

Section 7.3 Term of Office of Directors. Individual Directors shall hold office for a term of three (3) years.

Section 7.3.1 Staggered Terms. At each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, approximately one-third (1/3) of the authorized number of Individual Directors shall be elected. Individual Directors shall hold office for a three-year term, each beginning on May 1 of the year of their election and ending on April 30 of the third year following their election. If an Individual Director is elected to serve a term beginning on a date other than May 1 of any year, the term of such Individual Director shall begin on a date determined by the Board and terminate on the last day of April immediately preceding the third anniversary of such Individual Director’s election. If the Board of Directors fails to elect the number of Individual Directors designated at the required annual meeting, they may be elected at a special meeting of the Board of Directors held for that purpose. Any newly elected member is subject to a term limit of no more than nine years at which time they would be required to leave the Board at the expiration of their third term and would be eligible for reelection after a one-year hiatus.

Section 7.3.2 Election or Reelection of Individual Directors. Prior to each annual meeting, a nominating committee recommended by the Governance Committee and appointed by the President shall review the performance of each Individual Director whose term is about to expire and inform all Directors of its recommendations as to the reelection of each such Individual Director.

Section 7.3.3 Meeting Attendance. Directors are expected to attend all scheduled meetings of the Board. It shall be the responsibility of each Board Member to notify the Corporation if he or she will not be in attendance of a Board meeting. In the event a Director misses three (3) consecutive meetings, the Board of Directors may request the resignation of that Director.

Section 7.3.4 Emeritus Status. Upon completing not less than two (2) complete terms as a member of the Board of Directors, an Individual Director may, upon nomination, be elected to “Director Emeritus status.” Director Emeritus status shall be conferred upon those Individual Directors who have made significant contributions to the Corporation including but not limited to active participation on the Executive Committee. A former Individual Director who is designated Director Emeritus shall be entitled to attend and participate in all Board meetings, committee meetings and to serve on committees or special projects as requested by the Board. However, a Director of Emeritus shall not have voting privileges and shall not be considered to be a Director of the Corporation.
Section 7.3.5 Founder and Executive Director Emeritus. Dr. Robert Peterson shall be designated as the founder of USAD, and Alfonso Perez shall be designated as the Executive Director Emeritus of USAD.

Section 7.4 Vacancies.

Section 7.4.1 Events Causing Vacancy. A vacancy or vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the death, resignation, or removal of any Director; (ii) the declaration by resolution of the Board of Directors of a vacancy of the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony or been found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law; (iii) the vote of a majority of the Directors to remove a Director; (iv) the authorized number of Directors is exceeded; or (v) the failure of the Directors, at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which any Director or Directors are to be elected, to elect the number of Directors to be elected at such meeting.

Section 7.4.2 Removal. Directors may be removed without cause by a simple majority of Directors then in office, including the Director whose removal is sought.

Section 7.4.3 Resignations. Except as provided in this paragraph, any Director may resign, which resignation shall be effective on giving written notice to the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. No Director may resign if the Corporation would then be left without the required number of Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Attorney General.

Section 7.4.4 Appointment to Fill Vacancies. If a vacancy is created by any event, a majority of a quorum of the remaining Directors then in office may appoint a new Director to serve until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors. Appointments to fill vacancies shall be made only at Regular Meetings.

Section 7.4.5 No Vacancy on Reduction of Number of Directors. No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director before that Director’s term of office expires.

Section 7.5 Place of Meetings, Meetings by Telephone. Regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place within or outside the state of California that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board. Notwithstanding the above provision of Section 7.5, a regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at any place consented to in writing by all of the Board members, either before or after the meeting. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications media so long as all Directors participating in the meeting can hear one another and all such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

Section 7.6 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on a day and at a time designated by the Board of Directors. The annual meeting shall be for the purpose of organization, election of Directors and officers and the transaction of other business.

Section 7.7 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors.
Section 7.8 Special Meetings.

Section 7.8.1 Authority to Call. The President, Vice President, Secretary, or any two Directors may call special meetings of the Board of Directors at any time.

Section 7.8.2 Notice. Notice of each such special meeting shall be given to each Director by first class mail, facsimile or electronic mail addressed to the Director at his or her last reported address or usual place of business, at least five (5) days before the day on which the meeting is to be held. Each such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting and the purposes thereof except as expressly provided herein. Any meeting of the Board shall be a legal meeting without any notice thereof having been given, if all of the Directors of the Corporation then in office shall be present thereat (except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened) or waive such notice in writing before, at, or after such meeting.

Section 7.9 Quorum. One half of the elected Directors, but in no event less than one fifth of the authorized Directors, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 7.10 of Article VII. Every act taken or decision made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including, without limitation, those provisions relating to approval of contracts or transactions in which a Director has a direct or indirect material financial interest, (ii) creation of and appointment to committees of the Board, and (iii) indemnification of Directors. Business may continue to be transacted at a meeting at which a quorum is initially present, notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

Section 7.10 Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice; (ii) a consent to holding the meeting; or (iii) an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice. Directors can protest the lack of notice only by presenting a written protest to the Secretary of the Corporation either in person, by first-class mail or electronic mail addressed to the Secretary at the principal office of the Corporation or to such Secretary’s e-mail address as contained on the Corporation’s records as of the date of the protest, or facsimile addressed to the facsimile number of the Corporation as contained on the Corporation’s records as of the date of the protest.

Section 7.11 Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

Section 7.12 Notice of Adjournment. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given, unless the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, in which case proper notice under Section 7.8.2 of this Section VII of the time and place shall be given before the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.
Section 7.13 Conduct of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the President of the Corporation or, in his or her absence, by the Vice President of the Corporation, or in the absence of each of these persons, by a Chairperson chosen by a majority of the Directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Board, provided that in his or her absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the Meeting. Robert’s Rules of Order shall govern meetings insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Bylaws, with the Articles of Incorporation of this Corporation, or with provisions of applicable law.

Section 7.14 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board consent in writing to that action. For the purposes of this Section only, “all members of the Board” shall not include any “interested director” as defined in the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law. Such action by unanimous written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors at a meeting of the Board. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Section 7.15 Fees and Compensation of Directors. Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement of expenses, as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors to be just and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time the resolution was adopted. Directors may be compensated for rendering services to the Corporation in a capacity other than Director, provided such compensation is reasonable and provided further that not more that forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving as Directors may be “interested persons.” “Interested Persons” is defined as any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time officer or other employee, independent contractor or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director or any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law or father-in-law of any such person.

Section 7.16 Non-Liability of Directors. The Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or other obligations of the Corporation, provided that each individual Director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of USAD, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

ARTICLE VIII

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of directors then in office, designate one or more committees, each consisting of three (3) or more Directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board, shall have the authority of the Board, except that no committee, regardless of Board resolution, may:

(a) Fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any committee, which has the authority of the Board;
(b) Fix compensation of the Directors for serving on the Board or on any committee;
(c) Amend or repeal Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws;

In this connection, the Executive Committee shall have the authority, subject to Section 8.1 of this Article VIII, to authorize actions of the Corporation, including the entering into of agreements by the Corporation, which are deemed by the Executive Committee to be necessary and/or appropriate for the Corporation to take prior to the next meeting of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall inform the Board of Directors at its next meeting of any such actions authorized by the Executive Committee. The following persons shall be members of the Executive Committee: the president; the vice president; the secretary; the treasurer, and the immediate past president with a quorum of at least three members required for action. The Executive Committee shall have no regularly scheduled meetings and only consider emergency issues that cannot wait until the next Board meeting and that any action taken by the Executive Committee be reported to the full Board for ratification. The Board of Directors can designate, by resolution, additional members to serve on the Executive Committee.

Section 8.3. Special Committees. The Board of Directors may authorize special committees to be appointed by the president, who then informs the Board of Directors of the number of persons composing such special committees and the terms and duties of such special committees. At least three (3) Directors shall be members of each special committee of the Board.

Section 8.4. Meetings and Actions of Committees. Meetings and actions of committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article VII of these Bylaws concerning meetings of directors, with such changes in the context of those Bylaws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members, except that the time for regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the Board of Directors or by resolution of the committee, and (ii) the number of directors which shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by any committee, except to adjourn as provided in Article VII, shall be the greater of two (2) or twenty percent (20%) of the members of the committee. Special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the governance of any committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws.

Section 8.5. Advisory Committees. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, may designate one or more committees consisting of two (2) or more directors and persons who are not directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Such committees (“Advisory Committees”) shall not have the authority of the Board and shall only investigate, deliberate and make recommendations to the Board. Section 8.4 of this Article VIII shall govern meetings and actions of any Advisory Committees.
Section 8.6 Permanent Committees of the Board. The Board has established the following committees as permanent committees of the Board: Executive Committee, Nominations Committee, Governance Committee and Finance Committee.

Any resignation shall take effect upon the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
